

SERVICE NEWSFarewells Set for Twinings*Review and Reception Slated September 30*By EVELYN M. DENT
Contributing Writer

Preparations are under way in the Air Force to "render honors" as the order of the day on Friday, September 30 when the Force will bid farewell to Gen. Nathan Faragut Twining.

The 4 p.m. review at Bolling Air Force Base is to be followed by a reception at the Officers Club where Mrs. Twining will join her husband in the receiving line. This party is to be one of the largest receptions ever held at the club, so greatly admired are the Twinings.

The Twinings have a house on Berkeley terrace near Mount Vernon Seminary and are now safely moved. They will stay in town for at least part of the year although it is expected that they will find time to visit their beloved Hawaii.

The Secretary of the Air Force and Mrs. Dudley C. Sharp will share honors with Gen. and Mrs. Twining on Wednesday when the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence and Mrs. Charles P. Cabell entertain at dinner.

Mrs. Cabell has planned one of her famed Texas-Mexican dinners in the garden and summer house of their lovely quarters at Bolling Air Force Base.